The 9 Gua-Dogs are born with a good nature; they are not inclined towards criminal behavior or to seeking gain through dishonest means.

They simply require a quite life and a good family to help them forget the ugliness and evil in the world. They are always ready to help others, even to the detriment of their own interest, and when they find themselves betrayed by cunning people, they will feel shocked and hurt. The 9 Gua-Dogs are consummate worriers and are generally pessimistic about the world around them; always fully expecting something bad is around the corner.

However, they have a sharp, brilliant intellect; they can also be wise, loyal, and sentimental. Whatever they focus and turn their attention to, they will develop competence; they'll always find a way to complete an assignment. In romantic relationships, the 9 Gua-Dogs require lots of emotional support and attention as they find it difficult to trust others and are often scared off by the dog's insecure, worrisome and anxious nature.

The best stuff: When the 9 Gua-Dogs are fully exhibiting their best qualities, they are honest, intelligent, straightforward, loyal, have a strong sense of justice, attractive, amiable, unpretentious, sociable, open-minded, idealistic, moralistic, practical, and affectionate.

The worst stuff: When the 9 Gua-Dogs move to the darker side of their nature, they can be cynical, lazy, cold, paranoid, judgmental, dogging, pessimistic, worrier, stubborn, and quarrelsome.

Career: Some of the best professions for the 9 Gua-Dogs, where they may attain wealth, fame or fulfillment, are in education, law, social work, research, counselor, campaigner, police officer, scientist, counselor, interior designer, professor, politician, priest, nurse, clerk, judge, acting, show business, public speaking, fuel/oil, chemicals, optical, cosmetics, advertising, television, restaurants, lighting, beauty, writers, war correspondence, and soldiers.
